AROUND the TOWNSHIP

Somewhere, some place, there is some one who holds the solution to the problem of how to finance electric signs designating the route into Niles from the recently re-routed Highway No. 101.

The joint Chamber of Commerce sign committee has sent out an S. O. S.

We need the signs and all of the preliminaries are out of the way except the matter of financing the project.

Won't some one step forward and tell them how it's to be done? Dr. T. C. Wilson is the committee chairman.

Niles and Washington Township were put on the Service Club map Thursday night when Rotary International moved into the Veterans Memorial Building en masse. It was a Red Letter Day for Niles, especially, as it has the distinction of being the only unincorporated town in California boasting a Rotary Club.

History in the making properly describes the gathering of more than 300, including the dignitaries of the worldwide service club organization. Long may the Rotary wheel turn in Washington Township!

There's always some good along with the bad.

The Western Pacific Railroad's crack "Scenic Limited" left the tracks and ploughed over an orchard near Hayward Sunday night.

That was bad.

One hundred passengers and the entire train crew escaped alive, only five persons being injured, none seriously.

That was good.

Tiburcio Urbina of Mission San Jose upset his automobile near the Newark Grammar School Thursday night of last week. It rolled over and came to rest bottom upward.

That was bad.

Urbina stayed in the car the whole time, crawling out without a scratch.

That was good.

Miraculous? Yes. But it's also the good with the bad.

While the Niles troop carried off top honors at the district Scout rally competitions held in Centerville Thursday evening of last week, the score sheet shows that the remaining troops in Centerville, Irvington and Decoto were decidedly in the running. Only a few points separated the leading score from the cellar contender and the runner-up was but a bare point and a half behind.

Now, what we need with a splendid troop showing of this nature, is some district competitions where the Township troops will all be winners.

"HUSKERS" TO BE OFFICIAL NAME

CENTERVILLE — Following an election held at the Washington Union High School recently, "The Huskers" was retained as the official name for athletic teams. Other names suggested were Grenadiers, Trojans and Warriors but the majority of the students voted to contract the old name, "Cornhuskers" to the Huskers. The election was in charge of Tom McWhirter, John Ferrante, John Dusterberry and George Mathiesen.

Christmas Spirit To Radiate From Annual Pageant

CENTERVILLE—The Christmas Spirit will make its official entry into Washington Township with the presentation of the annual pageant to be given at Washington Union High School auditorium on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 19, at 5 o'clock.

This year's production is to be "The Other Wise Man", the continuity having been written by Miss Antoinette Botelho of the high school faculty. Special music, taken from the Jewish Encyclopedia is being orchestrated by Dwight Thornburg of the high school staff for the occasion.

The lead part is being taken by Arch Sparrow, a new-comer to Washington High from Oakland. The speaking parts will be supplemented with choruses singing original Jewish hymns and a verse-speaking choir of 15 girls representing the angelic chorus.

Special decorations are being arranged for the hallway by Mrs. Josephine Morris and girls of the Home Economics Department.

Beginning at 4:15 o'clock, the Debs, quintet of high school girls will sing Christmas carols until the beginning of the pageant at 5 o'clock.

The story of the pageant is told in the following words of Henry Van Dyke:

"You know the story of the Three Wise Men of the East, and how they traveled from far away to offer their gifts at the manger cradle in Bethlehem. But have you ever heard the story of the Other Wise Man, who also saw the star in its rising and started out to follow it, yet did not arrive with his brethren in the presence of the young child Jesus? Of the great desire of this fourth pilgrim, how it was denied, yet accomplished in the denial; of his many wanderings and the probations of his soul; of the long way of his seeking, and the strange way of his finding the One whom he sought, I would tell the tale as I have heard fragments of it in the Hall of Dreams, in the palace of the Heart of Man."

Bay Bridge Singing Cop Sails for Year of Studying Voice in Italy on Dec. 15

George Stinson, known as the "singing cop" who entertained the Men's Club of Washington Township here recently will leave Dec. 15 for Italy to study voice.

Stinson, a motor patrolman on the Bay bridge, has received leave of absence for a year. Accompanying him to Italy will be his wife, pianist, who plays for him; his son Jack, 16, and Director Gaetano Merola of the San Francisco Opera Co. Merola predicts that Stinson "will sing as Caruso sang. His voice will be the golden voice of the present age."

An orphan boy whose path ran into that of Madam Schumann-Heink, Stinson is being morally and financially backed by such stars as Giovanni Martinelli, Gina Cigna and Kirsten Flagstad of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

The non-smoking 200-pound patrolman was born in Vienna, Mo., March 15, 1903. His parents died when he "could hardly remember them." He and two other children were placed in an orphanage. When he was 12, Stinson was "farmed out" to a family near

Proposed Youth Council Endorsed By Country Club

CENTERVILLE — Endorsement of the proposed Coordinating Council for Youth activities in Washington Township was given by the Country Club at this week's meeting after the idea had been explained by A. J. Rathbone, principal of the high school. Mrs. C. E. Martenstein, president, appointed Mrs. George Bonde to represent the Club on the council.

The first meeting will be held at the high school cafeteria at 12:30 o'clock on Tuesday, Jan. 18. Monthly luncheon sessions will be held. The council will be made up of representatives of the Welfare Club, the Country Club, the Men's Club, the sheriff's and the District Attorney's offices, health department and other groups. The scope of the council will be purely advisory, delegates to carry back to their respective organizations projects endorsed by the council.

This will be the first such coordinating council organized in a rural community. Similar groups function successfully in Berkeley, Oakland and other cities.

Other business considered at the club meeting on Tuesday included the reception of four new members, Mrs. Joel Langdon, Mrs. Dora Scudder, Mrs. Harold Houghton and Mrs. Margaret Cozzi. The club voted to send $10 to the Christmas fund of the U. S. Veterans Hospital at Livermore.

Announcement was made of the husband's dinner to be held on Jan. 17.

Further Appeal Made In Township For Sale Of Seal

"Don't forget to buy your Christmas Seals."

Volunteer Christmas Seal Sale committees of Washington Township this week reminded the people that many persons often unintentionally overlook the purchase of their Christmas Seals.

In connection with the Christmas Seal Sale of the Alameda County Tuberculosis and Health Association the committee said:

"Christmas Seals symbolize the work that has been done in Alameda County and throughout the nation in cutting down the tuberculosis death rate.

"Through good work in clinic and hospital and in the schools which these Christmas Seals have stimulated a nation has been able to combat successfully a disease formerly thought to be unconquerable.

"In this connection it is interesting to note that Alameda County's death rate has been cut from 116.4 per 100,000 population in 1920 to 47.9 per 100,000 at the end of 1936. This is a reduction of 49.2 percent.

"The Christmas Seals you purchase carry the holiday spirit and show that those who lie ill of this preventable disease this Christmas season are not forgotten."

NEWARK SEEKING BANK AND THEATRE

NEWARK—At the next meeting of the Newark Junior Chamber of Commerce definite plans will be made to seek the location of a bank and a theatre for Newark. It is understood that a building is available for the theatre and that it would cost only a few hundred dollars to put it into shape.

The next meeting will be held on Jan. 4, the Dec. 21 meeting having been postponed because of holiday activities. George Butler was received as a new member at this week's meeting.

CENTERVILLE—A re-union of all those who have ever been members of the Welfare Club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. L. McWhirter on Monday afternoon. This is the annual Christmas meeting and the time is spent in wrapping gifts for children under the supervision of the welfare department.

COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE WILL SPREAD CHEER IN NEWARK

NEWARK—For the first time in 10 years Newark will have a municipal out-door Christmas tree, according to plans made at this week's meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at Butler's Hotel.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE RECEIVES WARNING ON SIGNING OF PETITIONS

NILES—A warning against signing petitions without first having read them and ascertained their contents and meaning was read to members of the Chamber of Commerce at the Florence Restaurant in Niles Monday in a letter received from the State Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. T. C. Wilson reported on a letter received from the State Highway Department giving permission to place signs on the new highway. There was considerable discussion regarding cost of signs and methods of raising the money. It was suggested that a mass meeting of merchants be called in order to devise some plan of financing the project without working a hardship on a few individuals.

President W. B. Kirk presided. There was a capacity attendance.

GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY NATURE TRIP AND CAMPFIRE OUTING

CENTERVILLE—On Saturday, Dec. 4, the Centerville Girl Scouts, accompanied by their leader, Mrs. James Nunes, went on a two-mile hike up the Niles creek.

The group was divided into two patrols where each had to blaze a trail using at least 25 signs. After each trail had been followed by the opposite patrol, the girls walked up further to a suitable camp where they built fires and toasted marshmallows.

Around the campfire they made final arrangements for their candy sale scheduled for Wednesday, December 8, at the Centerville Grammar School. They also discussed the matter of making leather belts for their uniforms.

Those attending were Doris Alameda, Gloria Clark, Marjorie Jason and Beverly Adams. Other members of the troop who were unable to go on the above outing are Marion Simpson, Bernice Rose and Norma Lewis.

A. Silva after postponement of the hearing from last week's court.

Censuri was himself seriously injured and was released from the Santa Clara County hospital only a few days ago. The accident was a three-car collision on the Irvington-Warm Springs highway on the evening following the Big Game at Stanford.

INTERESTING PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR MEN'S CLUB CHRISTMAS JINKS

NILES—A special program of music and interesting features has been planned by President A. J. Petsche and his assisting officers for next Thursday's annual Christmas jinks of The Men's Club of Washington Township. The speaker's name and his subject is being kept a secret.

Music for the event will be furnished by an 11-piece orchestra. Ed Johnson, manager of the Oakland Shrine Club canters is bringing Johnny Barboni, accordionist for NBC to lead the community singing. Phil Ray of The Oakland Tribune will speak on "Sportscasting Football." W. T. Lindsay is supplying an impersonator guaranteed to entertain even the most long-faced guest and last but not least will be the turkey dinner to be served by those de luxe chefs, members of the Washington Township Post of The American Legion.

Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock. Reservations must be made not later than next Tuesday night.

WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL CLUB GIVES COLORFUL DANCE

CENTERVILLE—One of the most enjoyable and most colorful dances of the year was the first formal given by students of the Washington Union High School last Saturday night. The Boys' "W" Club sponsored the event and assisted Coach Jud Taylor and others in decorating the gym in Christmas motifs.

Archways of Christmas greens, a gay fireplace and a blue sky with a large silver star behind the orchestra platform transformed the gymnasium into a gay setting for the girls' new formal and the boys' "Best" regalia. Paul Rivers, impersonating Santa Claus, also added to the festivity of the occasion.

The floor show included numbers by the Debs, a quintet of high school girls, Beatrice Matzke, Linda Jane Hellwig, Jane Stanhope, Marion Ziegler and Winifred Bendel, accompanied by Laura Lee Zwissig, violin and guitar numbers were given by Juan and Jesus Silva and vocal numbers by Lorraine Peterson and Ileen Wittenmeyer. Tap dances were given by Florence May. The Senior class had charge of refreshments.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL PUPILS WILL PRESENT OPERETTA "THE MISER'S DREAM"

CENTERVILLE—"The Miser's Dream," a Christmas operetta, will be presented by the students of the Centerville Grammar School in the school auditorium, on Thursday afternoon, December 16, at 2:15 o'clock.

All parents and friends are invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

The story of the operetta centers around an old man who has spent his life saving and hoarding money. It is Christmas Eve when everyone is happy and full of the spirit of giving. The miser is counting his gold; he grows strangely drowsy and falls asleep. As the various elves and fairies appear to him they tell him that he may have his dearest wish.

The miser realizes that to feel care-free and happy as he felt when a boy would bring him the most happiness. His wish is granted only on the condition that he will not be allowed to return to his miserly way of living. He discovers that the greatest happiness comes only to those who try to make others happy.

The cast comprises Old Miser Money-Bags, Roy Mathiesen; Dame Marjorie, Doris Alameda; Mother Goose, Jean Wauhab; Elves and Gnomes, Shirley Alameda, Shirley Marriott, Vivian Rose, Alice Daniels, Betty Leal, Dorothy Gabriel; Christmas Fairy, Maxine Mau; Fairy Generosity, Elaine Lewis; Elf Selfishness, Kiyoko Tate; Elf Unkindness, Beverly Adams; Butcher Boy, Stanley Bernard; Black Cat's Chorus, Glenn Faucett, Ciro Orlando, George Holeman; Witch, Marjorie Jason.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS TO ENTERTAIN CHILDREN

SUNOL—Children of Sunol will be given a Christmas party on Wednesday evening, Dec. 15, at the school by the Parent-Teachers Association. A Christmas pageant is to be given by the school children under the direction of Harry Tripp.

General plans for the evening are being made by Mrs. Barton L. Webb, president of the P.-T. A., and Mr. Bricker, acting principal in the absence of Miss Anita Weikling.

Supervisor George Hellwig Compiles Interesting Facts Of Township Salt Industry

Reviewing pioneer industries in Alameda County, Supervisor Geo. Hellwig has given considerable study to the salt business. He reveals the following interesting facts:

Alameda County's oldest continuous business or industry is that of salt-making. Not only is the salt industry the oldest, but today rates as one of the most important.

Between San Leandro Bay on the north and Warm Springs Landing on the south are vast areas of salt marshes, and between these points the salt works or refineries are located.

For many years prior to the arrival of the Americans in Alameda County, Indians and native Californians of Spanish origin made annual trips to the salt marshes to gather salt for domestic use. During the months of September and October was the customary season for salt-gathering.

In 1852 a group of Americans, realizing the importance of salt and the great demand for same, started, in a crude manner, to improve the method of gathering salt for commercial use. In those days the salt marshes were not occupied, and people located on the land without learning who the legal owners might be.

However, in 1862, when there was a great demand for the commodity, John Quigley, a pioneer salt-maker, started the first real refinery. Atmospheric evaporation, the original system of making salt, was followed by Quigley.

This system, in the main, consisted of allowing the salt waters of the bay to gather at high tides into level lands, which were later dyked to keep the waters from receding into the bay. Evaporation of the water left a coat of salt on the ground, which was then scooped into piles and later distributed.

In 1868 the Union Pacific Salt Company was organized and incorporated. They purchased Rock Island, containing about one thousand acres of land, situated in Washington Township at the mouth of Alameda and Eden Creeks.

The fame of the high quality of the Alameda County salt soon spread, and within two years' time the company was serving trade as far north as British Columbia and into Arizona Territory on the southeast.

It was not long until other companies were organized for the purpose of manufacturing salt, acquiring thousands of acres of salt marsh lands for the purpose of expanding operations. The Plummer family of Massachusetts built a large plant and continued operations for several years.

Later salt refineries were erected at Mt. Eden, a few miles west of the town of Hayward, and at Newark and nearby Alvarado close to the first salt plant. Diedrich Pestdorf was the pioneer salt-maker in Eden Township. In later years the Oliver family engaged extensively in the salt business.

Today Alameda County furnishes more than 75 per cent of all the salt consumed on the Pacific Coast. Modern refineries are located at Newark and Alvarado. Salt ponds extend from Mt. Eden on the north as far south as the Dumbarton Bridge. Thousands of people are engaged in the industry, and modern methods have been adopted for refining one of the most commonly used household commodities and necessities.

Johnson, Margie Hassler and Myrl Roberts.

Twenty active members were present to welcome the new girls as well as several of the alumni group.

A QUESTION

A few days ago one of our prominent citizens visited our funeral home and was shown the splendid facilities we have provided here for serving our patrons.

"This is all very fine," he said, "But doesn't it make your service rather expensive?"

We explained that on account of the efficiency secured through the use of a building designed for the purpose, the comforts of this modern mortuary do not add to the cost of a funeral.

PETITIONS FOR THIS AND THAT

(From the Los Angeles Downtown Shopper)

Be careful, when you sign a petition, that you really know what it is all about—and that you are sincerely in favor of what it proposes.

Some years ago, during one of those petition epidemics for this and that, a group of factory workers hereabouts prepared a petition and arranged with an outsider to bring it into the plant for signatures. The petition started out with three or four long paragraphs about the desirability of a shorter work-week and more pay, then drifted into a discussion concerning the prevalence of high fogs and wound up by resolving that all of the employees of the plant work six months each year for no wages at all and that three players on the factory ball team be discharged because of errors made in a recent ball game.

Ninety per cent of the employees signed the petition—without reading it, of course—including all three of the victimized members of the ball team. When the trick was exposed by the jokesters, everybody had a good laugh—but ever after that, whenever a petition was circulated in that factory or at the homes of those employees, no signatures were attached unless the petition was carefully read, and the signers thoroughly and sincerely in sympathy with the proposal.

When a solicitor rings your doorbell and asks you to sign something, tell him to leave a copy of the petition or whatever it is he (or she) wants you to sign. Read it carefully and at your leisure. Discuss it with adult members of your family; with your neighbors in whose judgment you have confidence. In most cases the solicitors are paid from 25 cents "up" for each signature. We are informed that in one instance solicitors were paid $1 per signature. Solicitors usually are not interested in the petition's proposal; their interest begins—and ends—in your signature and in the price they get for it.

Carelessly signed petitions for proposals with which the general public is not in sympathy will cost taxpayers a lot of money, provided such petitions get signatures sufficient to place them on the ballot. Many times taxpayers find themselves directly or indirectly contributing to campaign funds in an effort to defeat some measure which they themselves helped put on the ballot by carelessly signing petitions.

Don't sign any old petition merely because it is the easiest way. It may be the hardest way, the most expensive way.

Be careful, when you sign a petition, that you really know what it is all about—and that you are sincerely in favor of what it proposes.

ILLNESS CAUSES

CHARGE DISMISSAL

DECOTO — Ramon Reveira of Decoto, charged with disturbing the peace in a fray when he allegedly slashed his brother-in-law with an axe, was freed at Judge J.

A. Silva's court Friday after his attorney, Tom Power of Irvington, notified the court that his client was suffering from a chronic illness which was responsible for the incident. The case was dismissed.

May we familiarize ourselves with its great historic record of human achievement, more fully recognize its proven value to society in its portrayal of the Life and Teachings of Jesus."
